Book launch
Delhi
14th December 2010
Orient BlackSwan.

Editor
Ketaki Bose
Heugh, Kathleen & Skutnabb-Kangas, Tove (eds). Multilingual Education Works. From the Periphery to the Centre. Hyderabad: Orient Blackswan. 2010
Dainess Maganda

Who am I
Tove Skutnabb-Kangas & Kathleen Heugh

Introduction - Why this book?
Carol Benson, Kathleen Heugh, Berhanu Bogale, and Mekonnen Alemu Gebre Yohannes

The medium of instruction in the primary schools in Ethiopia: a study and its implications for multilingual education
Susanne Pérez Jacobsen and Lucy Trapnell Forero: Language and culture in education: comparing policies and practices in Peru and Ethiopia
Carol Benson and Kimmo Kosonen

Language-in-education policy and practice in Southeast Asia in light of the findings from Ethiopia
Ajit Mohanty

Language Policy and Practice in Education: Negotiating the Double Divide in Multilingual Societies
Iina Nurmela, Lava Deo Awasthi & Tove Skutnabb-Kangas

Enhancing quality education for all in Nepal through indigenised MLE: the challenge to teach in over a hundred languages
MLE policy and practice in Nepal: identifying the glitches and making it work
Jeylan Wolyie Hussein

English supremacy in Ethiopia - autoethnographic reflections
Paul Taryam Ilboudo and Norbert Nikièma
Implementing a multilingual model of education in Burkina Faso: successes, issues and challenges
Ahmed Kabel

“There is no such thing as ‘keeping out of politics’”: medium of instruction and mother tongue education in Morocco
Kathleen Heugh, Carol Benson, Berhanu Bogale, and Mekonnen Alemu Gebre Yohannes

Multilingual education in Ethiopia: what assessment shows about what works and what doesn’t?
Kathleen Heugh and Tove Skutnabb-Kangas
Multilingual education works when ‘peripheries‘ take the centre stage